

Alpha Rho Chi LETTER

Convention
Edition

Bringing the 54th National Convention to Your Door

INSIDE

Events Debriefing

What happened at Convention.

Business News

Convention Government

Officers of the Convention.

New Officers

Say hello to your new Grand Council.

Titles

*Their titles have changed,
but their roles haven't.*

September 2001

Convention tours included the AOL Building, the National Arboretum, the National B firm Liminality, led by Michele LeTourneur (VITR), a designer at the firm. Schedule for convention participants to experience DC. Favorites mentioned include the Smithsonian memorials, the National Mall and the Ronald Reagan Building.

Professor Friedrich St. Florian, the architect for the WWII Memorial planned for construction on the National Mall, opened the Convention with his keynote address about that project.

The presentation, held at Catholic University, was followed by a roundtable discussion led by Grand Advisor J. Scott MacKay (ANTH). Seated on the panel with Professor St. Florian and Brother MacKay were Al O'Konsky, vice president of Leo A. Daly and recipient of the Alpha Rho Chi Medal, and Wm. Jermaine Richardson (SESH).

Events De

The closing banquet was held at Maggiano's Little Italy, located on DC's west side. During multimedia exhibitions about their members and activities.

Building Museum and the interior design led free-time allowed ample opportunity an museums, the Presidents' and war

Filling Little Italy

Convention group photo inside Maggiano's Restaurant.

Photograph submitted by Lucas London (APOL).

ebriefing

ing the banquet, several Chapters presented

Business News

Convention Government

Running the Convention were President Liz Laske (ANTH), Secretary Rick Jenkins (META), Parliamentarian Aaron Feldman-Grosse (VITR) and Sargent-at-Arms Karen Williams (SESH).

*(L-R) Rick Jenkins, Liz Laske, Aaron Feldman-Grosse
Photo submitted by Kim Clark (META)*

New Officers

The Convention elected two Grand Council Officers to serve from July 2001 to July 2003. Congratulations, Brothers!

Nicole Morris (VITR), WGE Emeritus, has been elected Worthy Grand Associate Architect. Thank you, Nicole, for your work as WGE the past two years!

Robert Ford (APOL), former RD for Region 3, has been elected Worthy Grand Estimator.

Brian Swilling (SESH) retires as WGAA. A special thank you goes to Brian for his continuing hard work and dedication to the Fraternity. Brian has since been appointed to the position of Grand Lecturer.

GC Contact Information

Gregory Pelley, WGA
apxwga@bellsouth.net

Vicki Horton, WGS
vjhapx@mindspring.com

Nicole Morris, WGAA
nmorrisapx@netzero.net

Rob Ford, WGE
rford2112@earthlink.net

Titles

The names of several national offices were changed to better represent the responsibilities of those positions. Regional Deputies are now Regional Directors, the National Inspector is now National Director and the National Expansion Programs Coordinator is now Expansion Director.

On the Cover

The Washington Monument, courtesy of Lucas London (APOL).

This issue of the Alpha Rho Chi Letter was designed and edited by Amber Ford. Suggestions, questions and comments can be sent to fordar@bellsouth.net.

Mark your calendars.

We're going to VEGAS, baby!

55th National Convention
Las Vegas, Nevada
April 4-7, 2002

Alpha Rho Chi Fraternity
P.O. Box 833432
Richardson, TX 75083
www.alpharhochi.org

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION
US POSTAGE PAID
CHAMPAIGN, IL
PERMIT #893

AUTOMIXED AADC 604 002
RICHARD LYLE JENKINS
12620 THUNDER CHASE DR
RESTON, VA 20191-5820

